Summary: When Cody finds a sight called FanFiction, and shows the rest of the team that their secret is out, they become a little worried. Is this the end of the Griffin Rock Rescue Team? Or is this just the beginning? Fun fact! Reviews help me write faster! So does music, but that's not the point. I do not own Rescue Bots or most of the Fanfiction noted in this story! Please enjoy!

>"Dad, what's FanFiction?" was Cody's first question that morning.

Cheif Burns looked up from his newspaper, and shrugged, clearly not knowing. "I don't know. Graham might though, you should go ask him. Just don't bug him to much he's studying!"

"Okay dad!" Cody shouted, as he pounded up the stairs.

Graham was tired. He and Boulder had been one full night patrol, with no relive team. It really sucked. Epically since he still had three tests to study for. Boulder had offered to help him, but Graham had insisted he got a little down time. Boulder gratefully accepted.

"Graham!" Cody said, as he flew into his brother's room. "I need your help!"

Graham was instantly awake. "Huh? Is there an emergency?!"

"Oh... No. I just have question."

"What is it?" Cody's brother asked, barely having enough energy to keep his eyes open.

"Do you know what FanFiction is? I'm sorry that I woke you."

Graham nodded. "Yah. It's where fans of shows and books, get together and write fiction about the characters. That's a main sight. And Cody. It's fine that you woke me. I need to study not sleep."

"okay." he said, then held up his tablet. "If that's what is, then why are we on there?"

"What do you mean?" the engineer took the the tablet from Cody, his eyes widening. "No way... Cody, we need to show this to dad right away!" He jumped up from his chair and ran downstairs, Cody close behind him.

Cheif Burns heard the thunder of footprints, all the way down in the bunker. And he also heard two people hit the bottom of the fire pole. He braced for impact and was thankful when his two youngest sons stopped short of hitting him.

"Whoa you two. Where's the fire?" he said, laughing slightly

"Dad!" Graham and Cody said at the same time. "Someone else knows the bots secret!"

All four bots and the two other Burns turned at this.

"What did you just say!" they all shouted.

"Well, well, well. I'll be turned. It looks like our secrets out. But how?" Cheif Burns muttered, reading the fanfic, Cody was on.

"I can answer that."

>I hope you enjoyed! That's just the first chapter and the next, they all MAY be made to watch one of my favorite episodes! Also, any FanFiction I mention, unless their mine, do not belong to me! For example, there is one of ChaseIsMyRescueBot's that I be using, so all credit goes to her! Thanks for reading and please review!
